

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

FOR THE YEAR ENDING

DECEMBER 31, 1869.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, BOSTON, }
30 COURT STREET, Jan. 15, 1870. }

To the Honorable Speaker of the House of Representatives.

SIR :—I have the honor to present to the legislature my third annual report.

Within the past year there have been the following trials for murder.

1. Indictment in Worcester County against Josephine La Flamme and David Dore for the murder of Charles La Flamme, husband of the female prisoner, by striking him on the head with an axe or hammer. The defence was that the act was not done by the prisoners. Verdict, not guilty. H. B. Staples and A. J. Bartholomew, for the prisoners. In consequence of the resignation of the former district attorney, and the assignment of Mr. Staples as counsel for the prisoners before his appointment as district attorney to fill the vacancy, T. L. Nelson, Esq., was specially appointed by the court, at my request, to act as district attorney in this case, and he assisted me in the trial; which was in April.

2. Indictment in Norfolk County against Nancy B. Madan for the murder of Obadiah Jones, by shooting with a pistol. The chief ground of defence was that the deceased committed suicide. Verdict, guilty of murder in the first degree. A motion for a new trial, and exceptions taken to rulings of the court, were argued and overruled. The prisoner was sentenced to death, but this punishment was commuted by the governor and council to imprisonment for life in the house of correction. The trial was in May. B. W. Harris, G. W. Searle, and W. E. Jewell, for the prisoner. The Assistant Attorney General, Mr. Davis, aided me in the prosecution.

3. Indictment in Middlesex County against Dennis Reene for the murder of Dennis Cronan, by chopping off his head with a broad axe. The defence finally went only to the degree of the prisoner's guilt. Verdict, guilty of murder in the first degree. The prisoner was sentenced to death, and a few days afterwards committed suicide in jail by hanging himself. The trial was in June. A. O. Brewster, E. G. Walker, and J. F. Williams, for the prisoner. District Attorney Morse assisted me in the prosecution.

4. Indictment in Hampshire County against John Dorsey, for the murder of his wife, Mary Dorsey, by striking her upon the head with a club. The principal defence was that she fell and struck her head upon a rock. Verdict, guilty of murder in the second degree. Exceptions taken by the prisoner's counsel to rulings of the court were argued and overruled; and the prisoner was sentenced to imprisonment in the State prison for life. G. M. Stearns and C. Delano, for the prisoner. District Attorney Spaulding assisted me in the prosecution.

Besides the above trials, several other indictments for murder were disposed of, permanently or temporarily, as follows:—

5. Indictment in Essex County against Patrick Daley and others for the murder of Joseph Burnham, by shooting with a pistol. The evidence appearing to be insufficient for a conviction, the prisoners were discharged on their own recognizance, without a trial.

6. Indictment in Worcester County against Bartholomew O'Donnell for the murder of Bridget Murray, by shooting with a pistol. I accepted a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree, and the prisoner was sentenced to imprisonment in the State prison for life.

7. Indictment in Worcester County against Robert D. Pyke, for the murder of his wife, Hannah M. Pike, by poison. The evidence appearing to be insufficient for a conviction, the prisoner was discharged on his own recognizance, without a trial.

8. Indictment in Suffolk County against Edmund Healey, for the murder of his wife, Mary Healey, by striking her upon the head with an axe. In this case I accepted a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree, and the prisoner was sentenced to imprisonment in the State prison for life.

9. Indictment in Norfolk County against Hugh Coffey for the murder of Malachi McManus, by stabbing him with a knife. I accepted a plea of guilty of manslaughter, upon which the prisoner was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in the State prison.

In three indictments for manslaughter, where verdicts of guilty were rendered, questions of law have been brought into the supreme judicial court, and argued by me.

The first was an indictment against Charles McLoon and others, in which, as was found by the verdict of the jury, the master and mate of a British merchant ship, sailing from England to Boston, inflicted injuries on a seaman by blows, exposure, and starvation, while on the high seas, which resulted in death on shore, in Suffolk county. The main question was, whether § 19 of Gen. Sts. c. 171, is a valid enactment, and sufficient to vest jurisdiction on these facts in the courts of Massachusetts. It was held that the conviction was right.

The second was an indictment in Suffolk County against George Evans for killing Henry McKenzie, by stabbing him with a knife. After a verdict of guilty in the superior court, the case was reported for the determination of the questions of law arising in it. Judgment was ordered on the verdict.

The third was an indictment in Franklin County against Harding G. Woodard, for killing Walter S. Combs. In this case exceptions taken by the defendant were sustained.

Quite a number of indictments for murder are yet pending and remain to be acted upon, as may be seen by reference to the list of cases hereto appended.

Under the authority conferred by St. 1869, c. 151, concerning the challenging of jurors, I have exercised the right of peremptory challenge in two cases. In one of them (Dorsey's case), the question of the constitutionality of the statute was raised, and, the objection being overruled at the trial, was afterwards argued on exceptions. The statute was, upon deliberate consideration by the supreme judicial court, unanimously decided to be constitutional and valid. Continued experience confirms me in the opinion heretofore intimated to the legislature, that the principle of this statute is a wise and wholesome one, founded in high expediency, and sustained by the concurring opinion of almost every jurisdiction where the common law prevails. The right of peremptorily challenging jurors in criminal causes, on the part of the prosecution, now exists in the United States courts throughout the country, by act of Congress; and in the courts of thirty states of this Union, and four territories.

The bill in equity for an injunction against the Liverpool and London Life and Fire Insurance Co. brought by a former Treasurer of the Commonwealth, in consequence of the refusal of the company to pay taxes here as a corporation, was argued before the full bench of the supreme court, and decided in favor of the Commonwealth. The Company thereupon sued out a writ of error, returnable at the December term of the supreme court of the United States. The case has not yet been reached for argument in that court.

In the cases, Providence Institution for Savings v. Boston, and Pliny Jewell v. Boston, it has been decided that St. 1868, c. 349, imposing a tax, to be paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth, upon shares of stock owned by non-residents of this State in banks located within the Commonwealth, is valid and not repugnant to the Constitution.

All the criminal cases pending on questions of law in the supreme judicial court during the past year have been argued and decided.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

CHARLES ALLEN.

A B S T R A C T S

Of official opinions of the Attorney General, from January 1st to December 31st, 1869.

BOARD OF STATE CHARITIES.

The word "reformatory," as used in St. 1869, c. 453, § 4, refers only to those three institutions which are established and maintained by the Commonwealth for the especial purpose of reforming juvenile offenders; namely, the State Reform School, the Massachusetts Nautical School, and the Industrial School for Girls at Lancaster.

The various preliminary steps provided by St. 1869, c. 453, having been first taken, the judgment of the magistrate before whom the case is pending is sufficient, without the consent of the parent or guardian of a child, to authorize the board of state charities to indenture the child, or place him in a suitable family.

When such a judgment is entered, it is not to be regarded as a final disposition of the case until it has been acted upon; but the case should remain open. And if there should be a failure on the part of the board of state charities to exercise the authority within a reasonable time, the court may rescind the order, and proceed to pass sentence upon the child.

The proceedings before the magistrate are precisely the same in the case of complaints against girls, as against boys, and the visiting agent should be notified by the magistrate of the time and place of hearing, and should thereupon inform the officers of the Industrial School for girls thereof; and the officers of that institution should attend the hearing personally or by deputy.

Since the passage of St. 1869, c. 453, the inspectors of a State almshouse have no further duty or authority in regard to children whom they have indentured, unless such children again become inmates of their institution ; but the duty and authority to look after children who have been so indentured belong to the visiting agent appointed under that statute : subject, however, to the supervision and appeal therein provided for.

The appeal which is given by St. 1869, c. 453, § 5, from the action of the visiting agent of the board of state charities is to the board of state charities, and not to the inspectors of almshouses.

BOSTON, HARTFORD AND ERIE RAILROAD COMPANY.

Under St. 1867, c. 284, the amount of scrip, expressed in the currency of Great Britain, to be issued from time to time to the Boston, Hartford & Erie Railroad, should not be computed at the rate of $4.84 to the pound, but should only be so much as will be equivalent in value to the number of dollars, in lawful currency of the United States, which the governor and council and commissioners certify that the company are entitled to receive.

Under St. 1869, c. 450, no change is required in the form of the State scrip to be issued to the Boston, Hartford & Erie Railroad, until scrip to the amount of $3,000,000, at the rate of $4.84 to the pound, has been issued.

Under St. 1869, c. 450, the Boston, Hartford & Erie Railroad Company cannot properly be deemed to have expended money, to any given amount, in the construction of their railroad, so as to be entitled to receive the scrip of the Commonwealth to the same amount, (expressed however in gold), until the actual payment thereof by them. It is not sufficient, that they have incurred a liability to pay the same to contractors.

BUREAU OF STATISTICS.

The power conferred upon the bureau of statistics, by Res. 1869, c. 102, to send for persons and papers, and to examine witnesses under oath, does not give to the chief and deputy of the bureau the power to administer the oath to witnesses who are to be so examined ; or to pay such witnesses for time and trouble spent in preparing to testify ; or to issue a capias, or to deal with unwilling witnesses as for a contempt, in case of a refusal to obey a summons.

It was not contemplated by the legislature that this bureau should incur any other expenses than such as may fairly be included within the express provisions of the Resolve.

By the true construction of St. 1863, c. 254, § 1, the bounty of three hundred and twenty-five dollars therein mentioned is not promised to any one who, by reason of a physical infirmity existing at the time of his enlistment, is unable to perform the military service which he undertakes; and such a person, being discharged, shortly after his enlistment, on account of such an infirmity which existed prior to his enlistment, but which, at that time escaped observation, is not entitled to the bounty, although he was guilty of no actual fraud, and although the credit given for him by the general government upon the quota of the State was never rescinded.

TAX.

The State tax upon the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company should be assessed at the same rate provided for Savings Banks, namely, at three-quarters of one per cent. per annum.

That company is liable to be taxed, at the same rate of taxation, upon shares of the capital stock of a corporation, held in trust by it; although the property of such corporation consists wholly of real estate. The value of such shares is to be ascertained by the treasurer of the Commonwealth, as in other cases.

TRUSTEES OF STATE LUNATIC HOSPITALS.

If by reason of insanity no indictment is found against a person charged with crime, and he is thereupon committed to a State lunatic hospital by order of court, without any limitation of time, the trustees have the same power to discharge him, after the cause of his confinement has ceased, as they have in other cases.

stitutional, until otherwise decided by the supreme judicial court.

POT AND PEARL ASHES.

The official duties of the inspector general of pot and pearl ashes are limited to such as are designed for exportation.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

The St. of 1869, c. 408, establishing the board of railroad commissioners, contains no appropriation of money to pay their salaries or office expenses; and, there being no separate appropriation for these purposes, there is no authority for paying money for them from the treasury of the Commonwealth.

The provision in § 5 that "they may draw upon the treasurer of the Commonwealth for a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars annually" for certain expenses, does not authorize the payment of money from the treasury upon their order, because the Constitution provides that no money shall be issued from the treasury (except in certain cases, not material here) but by warrant under the hand of the Governor.

SALARY.

The salary of the deputy warden of the State prison must cease at the time when he ceases to be actually employed in the duties of that office.

SOLDIER.

No interest should be allowed, in the payment from the treasury of the Commonwealth, to the widow or heirs of a deceased soldier, of the bounty of one hundred and twenty dollars, allowed by St. 1863, c. 254, § 3.

Moneys refunded by soldiers who, after having received bounties from the Commonwealth, were rejected by the army board of surgeons as unfit to perform military duty, are subject to the same rules as other moneys in the treasury, and cannot be paid therefrom except upon an executive warrant drawn in accordance with an appropriation; and it is immaterial under what head such moneys may have been entered in the treasurer's books.

in express terms ; and wherever there is no such provision, the tenure of office ceases at the expiration of the term fixed, whether any successor has been chosen or appointed, or not.

MANDAMUS.

If an inferior court refuses to take cognizance of a criminal complaint, or to exercise criminal jurisdiction conferred on it by law, under the mistaken opinion that it has not authority in the premises, a writ of mandamus will lie to compel it to do so.

In such case, the Attorney General is the proper officer to make application for the writ.

OCEAN TELEGRAPH.

By passing a legislative act creating a corporation with authority to lay a telegraph cable to the open sea, and to connect the same with any foreign telegraph cable, this Commonwealth is in no manner committed or bound to maintain or vindicate such corporation in the exercise of those rights, nor is it necessary or proper for the authorities of this Commonwealth to institute any judicial proceedings to ascertain whether the consent of Congress is also necessary to make the act efficacious ; certainly not, without previous request by the general government.

PAUPERS.

In all cases where persons charged with crime are duly committed to either of the State lunatic hospitals, and have known settlements within this Commonwealth, the expenses of their support should be charged to their places of residence, or to the persons themselves ; and not to the Commonwealth.

The superintendent of a State almshouse has no power to detain against their will the inmates thereof, or the children attending the State Primary School ; unless, in the latter case, the children have been transferred from the State Reform School.

PEDDLERS.

Under the statutes of this Commonwealth, no licenses for peddling are to be granted to non-residents ; and these statutes, having been in force since 1846, must be deemed to be con-

If necessary to summon witnesses to testify before this bureau, it is to be done by a summons issuing from a justice of the peace.

COMMUTATION OF PUNISHMENT.

The power of pardoning offences includes that of commuting the punishment fixed by the court to any less punishment of the same kind, or to any usual punishment of a different kind, which is accepted by the convict as less severe.

In case a woman's sentence of death is commuted to imprisonment, the imprisonment should be either in the jail or house of correction; and it is proper to require that her application for commutation should show her acceptance of either place of imprisonment that may be decided on by the governor and council.

CONSTABLE OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

A town lock-up, established under St. 1862, c. 216, § 16, may be used by the constable of the Commonwealth or any of his deputies for the detention of persons arrested without a warrant, in the same manner as the same may be used by the local police of the place in which it is situated; and such use cannot lawfully be prohibited.

GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL.

The governor and council have authority, and it is their duty, when the legislature are not in session, to take such measures as may through unforeseen circumstances become reasonable and necessary for protecting and preserving property of the Commonwealth, which is not specially put in charge of other persons under the laws.

HARBOR COMMISSIONERS.

If the time has expired for which one of the harbor commissioners was appointed, without his re-appointment, or any new appointment being made, he does not hold over until the appointment of his successor; but a majority of the whole contemplated number of harbor commissioners may act.

Wherever it is intended that an officer, for whom a specifically defined and limited term is fixed, shall hold over till his successor is qualified or appointed, provision to that effect is made
